Athene Holding Ltd. Announces Deconsolidation of AGER

PEMBROKE, Bermuda – January 1, 2018 – Athene Holding Ltd. (NYSE: ATH) (“Athene”) announced it has completed the deconsolidation of AGER Bermuda Holding Ltd. (“AGER”), the former holding company of Athene Holding Ltd.’s (“Athene”) European operations. With the deconsolidation of AGER from Athene, it is necessary to change the name of AGER to Athora Holding Ltd. which will be launched in mid-January 2018.

AGER’s successful capital raise in April 2017, representing approximately €2.2 billion, laid the foundation for its growth in Europe and was an important step toward AGER’s goal of becoming a European run-off consolidator and life reinsurance partner. In August of 2017, AGER announced its intention to acquire Aegon Ireland, a Dublin-based insurer, and AGER expects to draw down capital to close the acquisition following satisfaction of all conditions to closing, including receipt of regulatory approval.

Athene remains a minority shareholder in AGER along with other global investors including affiliates of Apollo Global Management, LLC (NYSE: APO). Additionally, Athene will be a preferred reinsurer for AGER’s spread liabilities and have representation on its board of directors.
